In less time than it took most runners to finish the 26-mile, 385-yard course, the Palm Beach community, led by George Cloutier, Tiffany Spadafora, David McCourt and Mary Bryant raised more than $150,000 for the Achilles Freedom Team of Wounded Veterans who ran, walked or rolled their wheelchairs in the recent Marathon of the Palm Beaches.

Fifteen members of the Achilles Track Team were the guests of honor at a cocktail party at the ocean-front home of George Cloutier and Tiffany Spadafora that drew 350 guests to raise funds to motivate, rehabilitate and train wounded Iraq veterans for endurance sports.

Major sponsors of the event were Lois Pope, Michelle and Howard Kessler, Robert Garvey of Intech, Hampton Liquors and Café Saporì.
