ACHILLES MARATHON TEAM HONORED

On Sunday, December 2, members and guests were invited to the elegant home of ☉. Anita Pollak to start the Chapter season. Sixty members and guests enjoyed the social time together catching up on their recent travels.

The afternoon was dedicated to the Achilles Marathon Team that includes veterans from the Iraq and other wars. Earlier in the day these men and women had participated in a marathon.

Chapterpresident Charles Klotsche talked about his personal efforts to send the Achilles group to attend marathons around the world during 2007. ☉. George Cohan, owner of the McDonalds franchise in Russia, arranged for the hotels, transportation and sightseeing for the group. The airfare was provided by donations of miles by a friend of President Klotsche.

Looking ahead to 2008, President Klotsche is making a personal effort to take them on an around the world marathon adventure and invite them to become Circumnavigators.

Everyone enjoyed an evening of dancing provided by Sosha, ☉. Pollack's favorite musician.
