Anne V for Achilles International

Anne & Alexander Dmitriev at the NYC marathon on November 1:

Anne Vyalitsyna ran the NYC marathon on November 1 on behalf on "Achilles International" which is a worldwide organization that encourages people with disabilities like paralysis, visual impairment, cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, amputations, and traumatic brain injuries to participate in running with the general public.

Anne guided Alexander Dmitriev from Russia for the entire length of the marathon. He participated in a wheelchair.

Achilles International's story:

In 1976, Dick Traum, an above the knee amputee, found himself

ABOUT WOMEN MANAGEMENT

Women Management was founded in New York in 1988 by Paul Rowland with an inspiration to expand the definition of beauty. Over the past two decades Women has launched the careers of models such as Carmen Kass, Isabeli Fontana, Iselin Steiro, Natasha Poly, Kylie Bax, Julia Stegner, Kate Moss, and Shana Zadrick.

In 2003 offices in Milan and Paris were opened to further the management vision of Women worldwide.
